Immediate family members of Buccaneer Commissioners and staff are not eligible for the Program. The Buccaneer Commission Governing Board reserves the right to extend or withhold an invitation for entry to any Participant.

The Buccaneer Commission, Inc. does not advocate, support, or practice discrimination based on race, religion, age, national origin, language, sex, sexual orientation, or mental or physical handicap or any other personal attribute protected by law, except where affirmative action may be required to redress individual or social handicaps.

Information including GPA, Date of Birth, level in school, and gender will be confirmed by the official transcript.

2. ENTRY: The online entry application is available at www.BucDays.com. Deadline is November 1, 2023.

Transcripts must be submitted by deadline to complete the application. Transcripts may be emailed to lindslee@bucdays.com. Transcripts may also be mailed (post marked by November 1, 2023) to:

Buccaneer Commission
P.O. Box 30404
Corpus Christi, TX 78463

If transcripts are not received, the entry will be considered incomplete. The Buccaneer Commission will not request transcripts from schools on students' behalf.

3. COMPETITION: Finalists for the Buc Days Port of Corpus Christi Leadership Program will be selected through a competition consisting of Interview/Public Speaking and an Essay. Participants must participate in scheduled events in person on one of the dates offered; December 14 – 5p-9p or December 16 – 9a-4p. A third day may be added, if needed, to accommodate all contestants that have advanced to the Interview. Events will NOT be rescheduled for individual Participants with conflicting obligations.

Essay Competition: Each Participant must submit a typed essay of 750-1000 words. Essay topics will be provided to participants on November 6, 2023.

Essay Deadline: Completed Essays must be sent electronically to lindslee@bucdays.com no later than November 27, 2023.

Essay Judging: Essays will be critiqued by a panel of judges upon the following criteria:

- Content and Overall Effect- 40%
- Organization- 20%
- Vocabulary- 20%
- Mechanics- 20%

Total possible score: 100%

Interview/Public Speaking Competition: Each Participant must prepare and present a 2–3-minute speech. The speech content should include information about the student that is not listed in their academic record. Information such as awards received, hobbies, community service, etc. will already be provided to the judges. Also, the student should include why they should be considered for the Leadership Program. Interviews must be done in person.

Interview/Public Speaking Judging: Each Participant will field questions from a panel of judges and be scored based on:

- Why you should be considered for the Leadership Program- 40%

- Posture- 10%
- Pacing- 10%
- Volume- 10%
- Eye Contact- 10%
- Participation in school and community activities and/or jobs-20%

Total possible score: 100%

Other candidates will not be present during the public speaking/interview.

4. SCHOLAR JUDGING: Each Participant will be judged on their Interview/Public Speaking and Essay. A total of 200 points may be awarded to each Participant. An additional 5 points will be added to the final score of first-generation college students. Finalists will be determined by the following criteria:

Interview/Public Speaking	100 Points
Essay	100 Points
*First-Generation college student	5 Points
Total Points	205 Points

* The Department of Education, in the Higher Education Act of 1965 and 1998, clearly defines a first-generation college student as a student both of whose parents did not complete a bachelor's degree, or in the case of students who live with and are supported by only one parent, a student whose only such parent did not complete a bachelor's degree.

5. SCHOLARS: The ten (10) male and ten (10) female scholars with the highest scores at the conclusion of the competition will be named scholar and continue as participants in the Buc Days Port of Corpus Christi Leadership Program.

6. SCHOLAR REQUIREMENTS: Once a participant has been selected as a scholar, they will be part of a prestigious leadership training program for their final semester of high school. The scholarship award winners listed under AWARDS will be selected from this group.

7. ATTENDANCE REQUIREMENT: Scholars will be required to attend multiple leadership training courses, mentoring sessions and Buc Days Events. Please note the events where attendance is mandatory/required. Points will be given for each event attended. Attendance at every event offered will result in a maximum score of 230 attendance points. A minimum of 180 attendance points is needed, and attendance to mandatory events is required to fulfill program requirements.
